

BRITISH ARMY IN TWO MILES OF BAPAUME DRAFT MEASURE PASSES HOUSE THIS AFTERNOON

MAN POWER BILL IN ITS ENTIRETY O. K.'D BY HOUSE

(International News Service)
MEASURE DELAYED IN SENATE AND NO AMENDMENTS VOT-ED ON.

(International News Service)
Washington, Aug. 24.—The House yielded this afternoon to pleas of Secretary Baker and other cabinet officers and defeated the Madden amendment to the man power bill which would have prevented exemption of government employees.

(International News Service)
Washington, Aug. 24.—Unincum-bered by amendments, the administration man power bill extending the draft ages will be passed by the House this afternoon.

The bill cannot be passed by the Senate before Monday. "Too much talk," declared Senator Chamberlain, who has charge of the bill. "If there appears later to be the remotest possibility of putting the bill through today, however, I shall demand a night session," he said.

The House had voted on a dozen amendments to the bill, but the Senate had not passed upon a single proposed alteration when the two houses went into session today.

Having decisively beaten the Mc-Kenzie amendment designed to hold men below 20 years until all others liable under the new ages be called, the House had only one measure still to consider. This is the duplicate of the Reed-Thomas anti-strike amendment, offered by Representative Blanton of Texas, but all indications were that the amendment would be voted down.

The House has given definite answer to charges of "slackening on the job" by rescinding that part of the original draft law making members of Congress automatically exempt from its provisions.

The Senate was prepared to take its first record vote when it recon-vened today, balloting on the Reed amendment providing that wives of soldiers and sailors shall not be barred from government employment on the ground of their married status.

The House late Friday rejected by a vote of 172 to 90 an amendment by Representative Johnson of Washington to change the draft age limits to 19 to 45 in the man power bill.

An amendment by Representative Blackmon of Alabama to make the minimum age 21 years was rejected, 195 to 42.

Representative Johnson proposed to make the maximum age 50 years, but was voted down, 168 to 118.

Members of Congress and of state legislatures will be subject to draft in the new man power bill, under an amendment by Representative Gregg of Texas, adopted by the House. It also includes executive officials of the states and the United States.

In the midst of confusion and uproars over a proposed amendment by Representative Madden of Illinois, to make government employees liable to draft, the House hurriedly adjourned at 7 o'clock last night, deferring the vote on the man power bill until today.

Agriculture is recognized as an industry essential to the war under an amendment by Representative Campbell of Kansas, approved by the House providing persons engaged in that work shall be exempted from the draft.

NAVY IS SCORED.

(International News Service)
Washington, Aug. 24.—The failure of the navy to destroy the American fishing trawler Triumph, converted into a German raider after being captured by a German U-boat, was scored by Senator McCumber of North Dakota in the Senate this afternoon. "Where has the navy been?" he demanded.

cluding those announced today, is dent and other causes, 715; wounded in action, 10,476; missing in action (including prisoners), 2,187.

Today's casualty list totalled 71, divided as follows: Killed in action,

GERMANS FORTIFYING TOWNS 100 MILES BEHIND THE LINE

(International News Service)
Amsterdam, Aug. 24.—The Germans are fortifying the towns behind Dinant, Belgium, and Givet, just across the border in France, according to a report received here today.

Note: The above cable would indicate that the Germans fear they will be driven back by the allies this summer. Dinant and Givet are 100 miles east of the present battle line.

(International News Service)
London, Aug. 24.—German families along the Rhine are preparing to move into the interior of Germany, quoting a Dutch traveler who has just arrived in Amsterdam. The traveler declared the Germans are getting over the belief that German territory is inviolable and that every one along the Rhine believes that an invasion faces Germany.

SUSPENSION OF DAM CONSTRUCTION DIDN'T COST SINGLE MAN HIS JOB

That the order discontinuing work on Dam No. 2 at Muscle Shoals has not cost a single man his job is the statement of J. M. Robinson, now on the Muscle Shoals police force, who was here today on a brief visit to his family.

"Every man who was employed in building the dam was switched over to the nitrate plants and put to work there," Mr. Robinson said.

"The building of the nitrate plants is being pushed night and day. Since I have been there, the sound of the hammer has been heard every minute of the time, night and day, Sunday and Monday. Thousands of men—how many I can't say—are exerting every effort to rush the plants to completion."

Mr. Robinson is a member of a police force of 400 men that is guarding the plants, bridges, power house and other property in that vicinity, as well as preserving order. "The minute a man is caught idling he is placed under arrest and sent over to Tusculum and put in jail. That is the last we hear of him."

LOCAL BOARDS CANNOT DETERMINE WHAT ARE ESSENTIAL INDUSTRIES

(International News Service)
Washington, Aug. 24.—When the local community labor board issued a ukase listing twenty-one industries as "non-essential," including mercantile establishments, automobile accessory employees, barber shop attendants, etc., the mandate was reported to have had a national effect, and when protests began pouring into Washington today, officials of the United States employment service ridiculed the order.

"No local community labor board has any authority to determine the essential status of any industry," they declared.

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 24.—Better roads, improved live stock, eradication of the cattle tick, working state convicts on public highways, the passage of laws preventing hog cholera, and the establishment of a state market bureau, were the important subjects discussed by the delegates to the annual convention of the Alabama Farmers' Union Friday, and the passage of laws providing for these things was approved.

The delegates yesterday disposed

MARCH PROMISES SAMMIES PAY CAR TO KEEP SCHEDULE

(International News Service)
Washington, Aug. 24.—Members of the Senate military affairs committee asked Gen. March, chief of staff, today to take action to have all American troops overseas or in the United States paid at regular intervals. Gen. March promised a complete investigation and immediate remedy of the conditions complained of.

Senators also expressed the belief that the casualty lists were not coming through as fast as they might.
Gen. March stated that the lists were being made public without delay.

Gen. March revealed that he is bringing to the United States several officers who have won distinction in the fighting in France to help whip other units into shape.

Gen. March stated that there have now been sent to France or are already embarked more than 1,500,000 American soldiers.

MARCH'S FIGURES WERE THE COLD BLOODED KIND

(International News Service)
Washington, Aug. 24.—General March's declaration to Senate and House committees that the man power of America will win the war was a cold, military statement. The general so informed the newspaper men at his weekly conference today.

He stated that his announcement that the United States must have an army of 4,000,000 men overseas in June and a reserve at home of 1-000,000 was based on the knowledge that such an army will win the war.

FIGHTING LULLS AROUND NOYON

Third Army Presses Forward on a Front of Fifteen Miles

(International News Service)
Paris, Aug. 24.—"We've begun and we shall continue," was the way Field Marshal Foch summed up the battle situation when he received correspondents at the front.
"You may tell the American people," he said, "that the American troops are admirable. They ask no better than to go forward to their death. They can be reproached only for going forward too fast. We have to hold them back."

(International News Service)
Rome, Aug. 24.—From June 1 to August 20, 302 enemy machines were shot down on the Italian front, it was announced here today.

(International News Service)
Today's cables show that the British armies are still smashing their way forward into the German lines east of Albert. The British war office announced that gains were made in that sector last night and that today the attack was renewed. No definite news was given today as to just how far Haig's troops had penetrated. The British war office last night confirmed the capture of Herleville, south of the Somme river, and Gomicourt, Boyellis and Boiry-Decquerelles, north of Bapaume.

Today's official statement does not mention fighting in either of these sectors.

The size of the British victory of the past few days is indicated by the announcement that since the morning of August 21 the British have taken 14,000 German prisoners. Continued activity is noted in Flanders. Infantry fighting around Noyon and along the Oise and Ailette rivers apparently has died down.

(International News Service)
London, Aug. 24.—The third British army is still advancing on a front of from 12 to 15 miles and is now within less than two miles of Bapaume, the great German base, the International News Service learned this afternoon.

The British advanced from one to two miles over this front last night. They now seriously threaten the German positions along the Thiepval ridge. A German retirement on this front has been contemplated for some time.

Part of the third British army has crossed the Ancre river and is storming the slopes of Triepval. At some points around Bapaume the British have advanced their lines four miles since yesterday morning.

The allies have taken well over 100,000 German prisoners since July 18, showing the extent to which they have been constantly pressing the retreating enemy. Last night the fourth British army was reported on the outskirts of Bray, but the capture of that place has not been reported.

The fourth British army attacked yesterday on both sides the Somme and scored an advance of three miles.

—Gen. Mangin's troops continue to drive ahead along the Ailette river. Advances reaching American headquarters early today say that the French Tenth army is advancing all along the line. Further north the French soldiers that are battling for Noyon are pressing in on the city from three sides.

(International News Service)
London, Aug. 24.—Twenty German aeroplanes were shot down by the British on August 22, it was officially announced today. Eight German balloons were also destroyed, while four air planes were forced down out of control. Three British machines are missing.

(International News Service)
London, Aug. 24.—Twelve allied aviators routed 30 German airmen in a battle over Cambrai yesterday, shooting down six of them and forcing down three out of control. The rest of the German machines fled. All the British aviators returned safely to their base.

(International News Service)
London, Aug. 24.—(11:15 a. m.)—British troops made further progress in their attack on the German lines around Albert, the war office announced today. Early this morning Gen. Haig's troops renewed their attacks on a large scale. In the three days' fighting since the morning of August 21, the British alone have taken 14,000 prisoners. Also a number of guns have been captured.

Paris, Aug. 24.—Infantry fighting has apparently died down north of Soissons for the time being. The French war office today mentioned only lively artillery firing in that sector.

(International News Service)
Rome, Aug. 24.—Nine enemy planes were shot down yesterday by Italian aviators, it was officially announced today.

SENATOR LODGE OUTLINES ACCEPTABLE PEACE TERMS.

Peace terms that would be acceptable to America were outlined by Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, ranking Republican member of the Foreign Relations Committee, in discussing the man power bill in the Senate yesterday. Whether he voiced the views of the administration was not stated, but it may be taken for granted that in a way he was.

The Lodge peace terms included complete restoration of Belgium, unconditional return of Alsace-Lorraine to France, and of Italia Irredenta to Italy, safety for Greece, independence for Serbia and Rumania, an independent Poland, independence of the Slav peoples, and freedom of Russia from German domination, including return of Russian territory wrested by Germany in the Brest-Litovsk treaty.

Furthermore, Senator Lodge declared, Constantinople must be made a free port and Palestine never restored to Turkish rule.

The Senator stressed the fact that no peace terms satisfactory to the allies would be satisfactory to the Central Powers, and that in consequence the war must be fought to a finish, and in doing so he voiced the wish of the American people. To stop short of ultimate victory would be a master blunder on the part of the allies. Such action would never be sanctioned on this side of the Atlantic. Modern warfare is so terrible that to accept the chance of Germany precipitating another world-struggle would be the merest folly.

The conditions outlined by Senator Lodge do not include final disposition of the German colonies, the "freedom of the seas" and a permanent league of nations to enforce peace in the future. These are but a few of the incidentals that the entente will pass upon when the Kaiser is beaten to his knees and the militarists have been made to cry "enough."

WHERE ARE THE AMERICANS?

"Where are the Americans?" is the question asked by a newspaper headline beneath which is carried a speculative story as to the part that the Sammies are playing in the present drive in France. The question is one that has not been officially answered, as none of the war office statements identify any American units in the double offensive launched by the British and French. No answer is needed to such a query. It can be taken for granted that the Yankees are right up front. Ten thousand of them blocked the road to Paris. A million or more of them are no doubt furnishing the reserve with which Foch is driving the enemy from France. The boys from the states may be brigaded with the British or the French, or they may be fighting under the Stars and Stripes, but the fact remains that they are turning the tide of war and have already saved the world for democracy. The Fifth British army that ingloriously retired from in front of Cambrai is sweeping back over the same ground, confident and victorious. The gallant French, who contested every inch of terrain from the Aisne to the Marne, are pursuing the same troops that only a month ago were hot on their trail. This reversal of form was not one of the miracles of warfare. The plain truth is that Pershing's men, with their bayonets and their machine guns, fighting like wild cats, taking few prisoners, forgetting that there is such a word as defeat in the lexicon of battle, are out there where the fighting is the fiercest and where blood runs thickest. Whether they are stiffening the morale of their allies or are taking their places in the trenches, the American soldiers are writing a new history of the world.

The Store Is Brilliant with New Fall Merchandise

And As Usual These Displays Mark This as the Style and Value Center of This Vicinity.

Stunning indeed are the new Fashions for Fall, and with scrupulous care we have brought together truly splendid assortments for your selection—we are at your service.

Practically everything you have need of from the veriest necessities to modest luxuries, will be found here.

Prices and Values

You know without our reminding you, that wholesale prices have advanced sternly in nearly every line of merchandise. This has made us redouble our efforts to buy most economically and we have succeeded in getting real quality goods in ample assortments, marking them with prices that are as low, we think, as any store can sell equal qualities for.

There's Much Loveliness In Our Waists

Those who love pretty waists and who are just as particular about the little trimming touches as about lovely materials and attractive colors, will find this gathering of waists very much to their liking in this bright, fresh bevy of blouses just received from the makers.

The Fall colors and styles are so numerous in this showing that a detailed description of all would still be unsatisfactory, for one's eyes are the court of Last Resort anyway, and every waist here is so worthy of personal inspection—and admiration.

WOULDN'T YOU Like to see the new FALL SUITS

Just for a few representative models on display NOW—an advance showing offered that you may actually see the new Fashions in suits for Fall—but by no means a complete assortment.

You'll see the new slender silhouette featuring semi-fitted lines the new severely plain and one-sided and uneven pannelled effects in skirts, the new three-quarter length coats with long rather tight sleeves, the new fur trimmings, the new sused finished and other fabrics, such as oxford cloths, mixtures, broadcloth, velveteen, velvet and satin and the new shades of brown, gray and taupe, along with blues and blacks.

Our most conscientious advice to you is buy at least two pairs of good shoes right now.

You will find complete stocks here, newest styles, good service, best qualities and perfect comfortable lasts—stocks that were purchased before wholesale prices reached their present height and that we offer at lower prices than we think will be in force for a year or perhaps more.

The new shoes arriving almost daily were contracted for some time ago, so prices are unusually beneficial to you.

Letters From Trench & Camp

"Somewhere in England," July 3rd, 1918.

Mrs. Ben Baird,
Albany, Ala.
My Dear Mother:
I am writing you a few lines to let you know I am still in existence and feeling fine. We are at present in one of England's camps, but don't think we will be here long. This sure is a fine country (that is the scenery is beautiful) and everything is so different. I had a good laugh when I saw what kind of trains they have here. The engines are about the size and kind that the Hitt Lumber Co., use; are something like the street cars in Decatur, only not quite so large as they are cut up into compartments. Each compartment will seat eight people. I can't see for my life how they get by with it, but guess it is all O. K. or they would change. The scenery around here sure is beautiful and reminds me of some old homes in Kentucky. Everything is alike here, that is the houses are all built alike. From the port we passed through several cities and all the houses are brick and built just alike. I don't think I saw over a dozen frame houses all the way and we have come quite a distance. We had quite a good trip from Camp Travis, but I can't say we had a fine trip across the "Big Pond." I was lucky while in Camp Mills, Long Island and that was upon getting to visit Broadway, New York. You can imagine what a time I had can't you? Of course it was "country boys in town," but we had our fun just the same and I think I had about one of the grandest and best times I ever had in my life. We were given a 48 hours furlough to see New York and tried to get in 90 hours out of the 48. While in New York I went up to the top of the Woolworth building and that alone was like taking a trip. As you know the Woolworth building is the tallest building in the world. "It is just 55 stories high." You can see all over New York, Brooklyn, and most of Jersey City from its tower. I also took in Madison Square Garden and Coney Island and at the latter place I had lots of fun. It is a wonderful spot, believe me, but it takes a pocket full of money to stay very long and have a good time, although I happened to be along with a few of my wealthy friends and got by without a struggle.

While we were stationed at Camp Mills I ran across some of my old Camp Travis friends and I sure was glad to see them. They came down from Denison the same time I did, but were transferred away several months ago. They seemed to be enjoying life, but said they sure were disappointed because they were not coming across with me.

Yes, I was so disappointed in not getting to see Aunt Lizzie and James when our train passed through Bowling Green, Ky., but sure was glad I got to see Uncle Herndon and Blanche. They seemed to be in the best of health and Blanche's baby is the sweetest I ever saw and believe me, it is some kid. Just as soon as we get to where we are going and get settled I will write to them and keep in touch with them. We were several days in crossing "The Pond," but got over in good shape, thanks to having good weather and no "German subs." Of course some of the boys got mighty sea-sick and homesick also, but with that exception everything was O. K. I sure was surprised at my self at not getting sea sick but such is the truth. We had a little storm which lasted about 48 hours and then I got a little shaky, but I went down in the hall and laid down, so after a little while I got to feeling fine again and didn't have any more trouble the rest of the way, again thanks to the good weather. After we got off the big waves, no one got sea-sick and we made the trip in fine shape. Some of the boys, including myself, saw

"A SPLENDID TONIC"

Says Hixson Lady Who, On Doctor's Advice, Took Cardui And Is Now Well.

Hixson, Tenn.—"About 10 years ago I was..." says Mrs. J. B. Gadd, of this place. "I suffered with a pain in my left side, could not sleep at night with this pain, always in the left side..."

My doctor told me to use Cardui. I took one bottle, which helped me and after my baby came, I was stronger and better, but the pain was still there.

I at first let it go, but began to get weak and in a run-down condition, so I decided to try some more Cardui, which I did.

This last Cardui which I took made me much better, in fact, cured me. It has been a number of years, still I have no return of this trouble.

I feel it was Cardui that cured me, and I recommend it as a splendid female tonic.

Don't allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. It should surely help you, as it has so many thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired-out feeling, are all signs of womanly trouble. Other women get relief by taking Cardui. Why not you? All druggists.

a few whales and thought they were submarines, but when we found out they were only whales and harmless we cooled off. But believe me, we had some scare.

Well mother, I am on guard today and as it is most time for me to go on duty, guess I had better close for this time. I don't know if we will be allowed to get passes to the English town which is close to our camp or not, but as tomorrow is the Fourth of July I think we will; sure hope so any way, as I sure need some things and can't get them here. I guess this will reach you about the first of August, and by that time I guess I will be in France. Will write you at least once a week, so good bye for the present, with a world of love to you all.

Lovingly your son,
CORP. HOWARD C. BAIRD.
"Somewhere in France," July 6.
As our letters haven't been taken up thought would add a few lines. Am still on my feet and I think am going to like the French better than the English, although we have not seen many French soldiers yet. The French won't have to be very much to outshine the English people, but here is hoping we hurry up and get out of English camps. Will write just as soon as we get to where we are going, so will say good bye for this time. Hope this gets out soon for know you are anxious to hear from me. With lots and lots of love to you all.

Your loving son,

POTASH HUNGER OR BLACK RUST ATTACKING COTTON
Auburn, Ala., Aug. 24 (Special).—Potash hunger of cotton has begun to make its appearance in several sections of Alabama, especially on the light sandy loam soils, and it has been most noticeable on the thinner ridges and side hills, says G. M. Armstrong, extension pathologist at Auburn. Cotton grown on the red soils has been very free of this trouble.

The leaves of affected plants first turn brown to bronze colored and finally blacken when numerous spots may be found. When the leaves are brown or bronze in color on the upper surface, the lower surface may appear almost normal. In the final stages the blackened leaves usually fall so that the plant may be completely defoliated.

Red Spider injury, commonly called red rust, differs from the black rust in that the Red Spider causes

e New Calomel A Perfect Success

Calomel, the newly perfected calomel, is absolutely purified from all of the unpleasant, sickening and dangerous qualities of the old-style calomel. The new Calomels are rapidly taking the place of the old-style calomel tablets, as they are much more effective as a liver cleanser and system purifier, yet are entirely free from all objectionable qualities.

The new Calomels are sold only in original, sealed packages; price, thirty-five cents. Your druggist recommends and guarantees them. (Adv.)

a red area to appear on the upper surface near the center of the leaf, and the lower surface beneath the spot will be covered with a thin web made by the spider.

The only remedy for the black shortage of potash, the areas which rust or potash hunger is to supply show this rust should not be planted potash, preferably kainit, where this in cotton next year.

A THOUGHT FOR USE SUNDAY, AND EVERY OTHER DAY

BY OBSERVER

In a large college, some years ago, a great hub-bub arose over the awarding of a certain scholarship. The student getting the highest grade record did not receive the scholarship. Instead, a fellow competitor got it, whose grade was some lower, on the ground, as the award committee said: "of his superior promise." The rule of "promise," is in line with the divine plan. Your record is a mere index, is not the important thing. The question is: Are you a person of "promise?" We often hear of young people of promise, but how often of old and older people "of promise?" If one does not in all the stages of his life give promise, he is a failure. The older one becomes the more promising he should be. Take Longfellow, at eighty, on his dying day he was full of promise and things were full of promise for him. He said at the last: "It is daybreak everywhere." Jacob's tricky record is forgotten, in the great fact that he was a man of promise. Who remembers Abraham's record as a tithe payer to Melchizedek? But everyone knows Abraham, the first Bible character of promise, and the man, who under the most unpropitious circumstances believed in the coming of the "child of the promise!"

Those who contended for the student with the highest grade, could not see the hidden wings of promise on his less scholarly competitor. When the Savior said: "Except ye become as a little child," etc., he was stressing the great promise before those of the child-like mind. Those who watch the recording angel are wrong. Those who watch for the thousands of promises in God's book are right. Truly, spiritually minded persons will always fight the idea of one's record entitling him to heaven. If you ever live on the golden streets, it will be because you have enough of the divine promise in you to appreciate and appropriate the promises of the Maker of the golden streets. The most successful persons are those who can see the "promise" in themselves and in others. It was no idle boasting when the great have said that they would eventually attain to certain heights—but rather it was because they saw a "promise" in themselves that was steadily making for better things. How we love those who see some promise in us! How we turn from those who see in us only machines, capable of so much work, of buying so many groceries, of wearing so many hats, and of voting so many votes!

"Promise" is essentially a spiritual word. The Bible has thirty thousand promises in it, so Bible students say. When the Bible says "wait for the promise" we instinctively know that some promise of God is meant. Only persons who hold promises as sacred can be said to be persons of promise. The fact that America and the Allies have in a large measure kept their promises is what makes the foes of promise breaking Germany the people of promise for the future. Supermen are those of "promise" in the scriptural sense, but suppose one seems to have within him no promise? How is one to become a person of promise? In a word—have faith in God. It is through faith that we inherit the ability to be full of promise. I was through faith, that all the worthies of the past obtained the precious promises.

NEGRO TROOPS OFF FOR CAMP TAYLOR

Thirty-three Morgan county negro selectmen entrained early this morning for Camp Taylor, Louisville, Ky., where they will go into training. The men left here in charge of Lieut. McAllister, a white officer, who had been detailed for the special service. This is the first time that selectmen leaving for camp have been in charge of an officer of the regular establishment, and it is taken to mean that a new policy has been adopted.

Gray, Frank Orr, Herman Cole, Peter Matthews, Velia Williams, Walter J. Strother, later Jones, Sam Jackson Si Elliot, John E. Davis, Fred L. Orr, Simon Ingram, John H. Harris, Henry Hill.

Buttrey Back From New York Trip

J. B. Buttrey, prominent Second avenue merchant, returned at an early hour this morning from eastern markets. "New York is seething with patriotism," says Mr. Buttrey, "and the work of the women of the metropolis is wonderful. There are now women chauffeurs on taxicabs, ambulances and even on trucks, women waitresses in Broadway cafes, elevator runners in the big hotels, and in fact few men are now engaged in non-essential occupations. Laughters of the well-to-do are going their full share and are mixing with the "working girls" to such an extent that no lines are now drawn, patriotism being the key note hat has drawn all classes together." Merchandise is high but the quality is good and Buttrey's Department Store will be able to keep stock up to its well known high standard as formerly.
